Indian Champissage™

What is Indian Champissage?

Indian Head Massage (Champissage™) includes massage of the shoulders, upper arms, neck, scalp, face, ears and energy balancing. This method is the brainchild of Narendra Mehta. It is based on the traditional form of Champi (head massage) practised in India for over 1,000 years.

It is a wonderfully relaxing therapy. The massage is safe, simple to learn and very effective to give, without the need to undress or use oils. It can provide relief from aches and pains, stress symptoms, insomnia, promote hair growth, soothe, comfort and rebalance your energy flow which gives you a deep sense of peace, calm and tranquillity.

Narendra Mehta MBE

The late Narendra Mehta, having been totally blind since the age of one, developed a highly sensitive power of touch. He had over 25 years experience in bodywork and studied various hands-on therapies.

In 1978, he went to India to research "head massage" and subsequently developed his own unique therapy of Indian Head Massage (Champissage™), based on the traditional form of Champi and his own experience as a practicing therapist. He worked for over 10 years as a physical therapist and as a manipulative therapist and ran Indian Head Massage (now known as Indian Champissage™) courses for several years from the London Centre of Indian Champissage™. Narendra's wife (Kundan) and his godson (Moses) still continue to offer courses at the Centre.

Alison Inglis of Indian Champissage™ Scotland has been personally trained by Narendra as a tutor of this wonderful and unique approach to Indian Head Massage.

The Enchanted Cottage

Balquhidder Glen possesses outstanding natural beauty and has many spiritual and magical qualities. It is renowned for being a 'Thin Place' where the separation between heaven and earth is minimal and contains a number of potent ley, or earth energy, lines. Fairy lore abounds and there has always been considerable belief in the magical and healing qualities of the plants and animals which live in the Glen. Even to this day, there are tales of strange and unexplained happenings taking place.

The Enchanted Cottage, a magical pop-up shop, is inspired by and captures this wonderful place and offers a range of magical gifts, handcrafted Scottish gifts, fairtrade treasures and holistic products & therapies, including the award winning Neal's Yard organic beauty & health products. Run by teenager Hannah Inglis as an enterprise project, with help from her mum Alison who is an Indian Head massage therapist and tutor, the shop is online and open mainly on a Saturday and Sunday from 1pm to 6pm.

However, it often appears and disappears as if by magic so look out for it at other times too. Alternatively, if we are not open and you fancy a browse then just give us a ring or email and we'll open for you!

Please pop in for a visit and a look around – you will be given a very warm welcome!
